Seymour, WI, 7/22/18—The Cow Bell Street Stock tour ventured into the Outagamie Speedway to join the show as 125 cars were on hand for battle across 5 divisions. Jeff Richards had been hot in weekly Street Stock action and continued that hot streak as he won his first Cow Bell Street Stock feature. Dancin Lance Arneson (IMCA Modified), Brandon Czarapata (IMCA Stock Car), Kyle Raddant (IMCA Sport Mod), and Cody Booth (IMCA Sport Compact) also notched victories in the nights events.

The IMCA Modified feature saw Trevor Spaulding vault to the lead at the start of the race. Kyle Kudick and Jamie Schmidt made it a three-wide battle for the lead on lap 3. Spaulding continued to show the way though. On lap 6, Brekken Kleinschmidt passed Schmidt to move to third, while Lance Arneson advanced to fourth. Kudick, Kleinschmidt, and Arneson fought for second as Spaulding held the point position. Arneson had his car pinned to the inside line and pulled even with Spaulding on lap 12. On lap 13 though Arneson gained the advantage over Spaulding to take the lead. Arneson would not look back en route to victory. Kyle Kudick finished a strong second, with Johnny Whitman making a late race charge to third. Jason Czarapat and Wyatt Block completed the top five finishers.

Paul Holschuh led the early stages of the IMCA Stock Car feature before giving way to Brandon Czarapata on lap 3. Czarapata led every thereafter. Mike Mullen, Chas VanOoyen, and Travis VanStraten fought for position behind the leader. As Czarapata took the checkers first, he was followed by Mullen, VanOoyen, Trent Nolan, and Kyle Frederick.

Cory Kemkes started on the pole position of the IMCA Sport Mod feature and used it to grab the lead on lap 1 of the race. Kemkes was quickly shadowed by Cole Magnin. Magnin took to the outside of the track to grab the lead from Kemkes on lap 5. Jayden Schmidt moved past Kemkes on lap 8. Travis Hansen soon passed Kemkes for third. Schmidt and Hansen both began to catch the leader Magnin. Lap 15 saw Magnin, Schmidt, and Hansen go three-wide for the lead through turns one and two with Schmidt pulling ahead on the back straight away. The following lap, Hansen and Schmidt made contact while battling for the lead, ending Schmidt's night. On lap 16 Kyle Raddant asserted his presence, moving to second. Raddant got to the inside of Hansen on lap 18 and motored to the lead. Raddant would lead the next two laps to earn the victory. Hansen, Lucas Lamberies, Cody Schroeder, and Jason Ebert rounded out the top 5.

The Cow Bell Tour Street Stock feature Dan Van Pay snag the lead on the opening lap. Van Pay was soon joined by Alex Crapser and Jeff Richards, with Crapser taking over the top spot on lap 3. Richards got to the inside of Crapser to take the lead on lap 5 of the race. Crapser hung with Richards though as the pair battled for the lead. Richards soon began to step away from the rest of the field as Crapser, Gary Kasperek, Kenny Richards, Jesse Krahn, Kyle Genett, and Van Pay raced door to door, nose to nose for position behind Jeff Richards. Lap 14 saw Richards continue to pull away as Kasperek came under fire for second from Kenny Richards (Jeff's brother). Kenny Richards soon got the better of Kasperek and set his sights on his brother. Jeff would not be denied though as he hustled to victory. Kenny Richards finished second followed by Kyle Genett, Alex Crapser, and 19th place starting Jesse Krahn.

In IMCA Sport Compact action, Lindsey Mullen led the field early before giving way to Cody Booth on lap 6 of the race. Booth would lead the duration of the race for the win. Following Booth across the line were Al Cottrell, TJ Everard, Kyle Jorgenson, and Mullen.
